

The Five Orders of Architecture

Some Definitions

- Doric & Ionic originated in wood
  - Doric in Western Greece
  - Ionic in Eastern Greece
  - Doric was chief order for 800 years extending back to 600 BC
- Doric has 20 flutes
- Ionic has 24 flutes
- Corinthian most ornate of Greek columns
- Tuscan is never fluted
- Composite is a mixed order
  - Volutes of Ionic
  - Leaves of the Corinthian
- Romans developed the Superposed Order
  - Successive stories have different orders

The Capitals

Tuscan

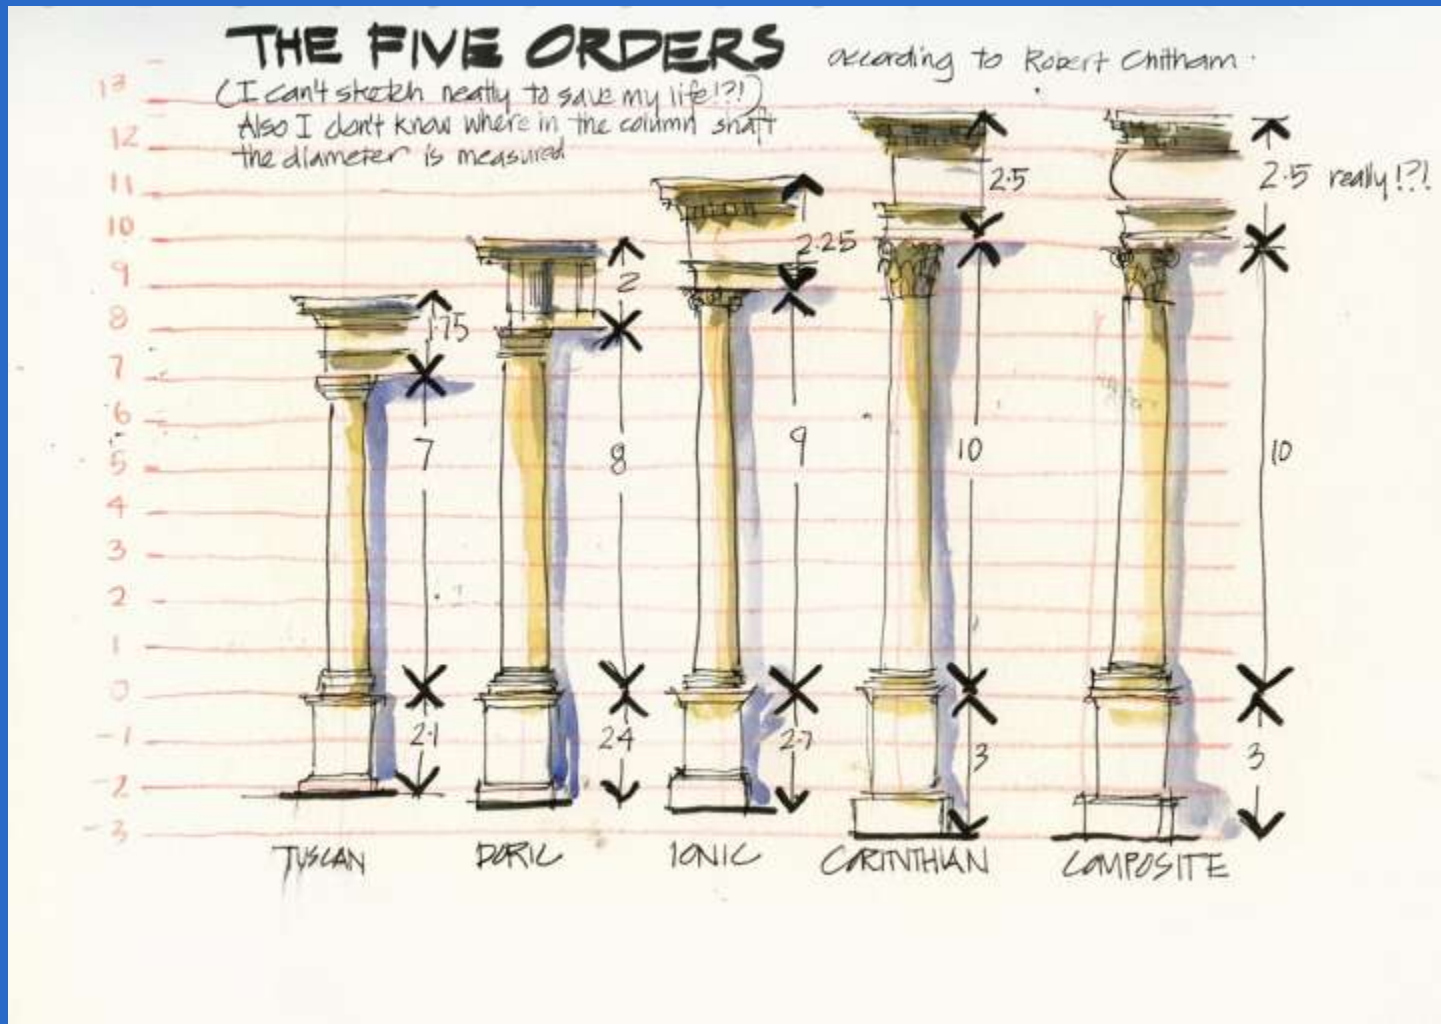

Doric

Ionic

Corinthian

Composite

The Sizes

The Entablature

What The Pillars Represent

- Doric
  - Strength
  - Hearing
  - Manly
- Ionic
  - Wisdom
  - Seeing
  - Matronly
- Corinthian
  - Beauty
  - Feeling
  - Maidenly
- Tuscan
  - Tasting
- Composite
  - Smelling